

CATHOLIC CHARITIES PRESENTS A PANEL DISCUSSION

REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT: LOCAL CHALLENGES AND COMMUNITY RESPONSES

Friday, December 13, 2013

6:30 PM

University of New Mexico
Student Union Building
Lobo Ballrooms A & B

Panel Discussion

Moderator:

Richard Wood, UNM Sociology, Associate Professor

Panel:

Jessica Goodkind, UNM Sociology, Assistant Professor of Sociology

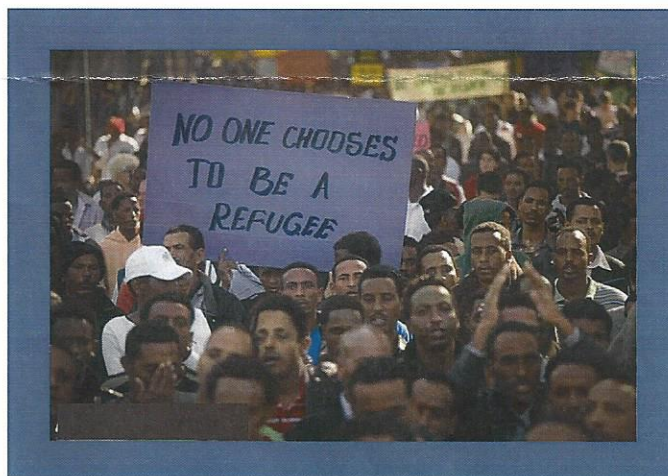

Emanuel Ransom, City of Clarkston, GA, Mayor

Elzbieta Gozdziaak, Georgetown University, Director of Research at the Institute for the Study of International Migration (ISIM).

The focus of the panel discussion will be on the impacts of resettlement upon local communities and what responses have local communities developed to meet the needs of resettlement. Both the positive and negative aspects of this story will be highlighted. For example, we will hear about the short-comings of resettlement and the unfunded mandates local communities take on by agreeing to do resettlement. We will end with a look at innovative community responses and success stories.

Join us in this powerful discussion on refugee resettlement!

This event was made possible by the Guadalupe Institute

RSVP to
Liz Lozano-Lopez
Development Director
Catholic Charities
505. 724.4693

